

Miss Shelton, Fiance Feted

Miss Dorothy Shelton and Mr. Lowell Bradford, whose marriage is to take place Tuesday, were honored yesterday afternoon at a tea dance given by Mrs. Eleanor Patterson at the 1925 P Street Club.

Guests at this gay party included the friends of the young couple and also a number of Mrs. Patterson's contemporaries.

Another party for a bride-elect and her fiance was the dinner given last evening by Miss Julie Cahill to honor Miss Nancy Hoskinson and Mr. James O'Grady, who will be married June 11, when Miss Cahill will be the bride's maid of honor. The party was held on the terrace at the home of the hostess' parents, Dr. and Mrs. James F. Cahill on Foxhall road.

Guests included the parents of the bridegroom-to-be, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Edmunds, and the mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Hilleary Hoskinson. Others in the party were Miss Nancy Riehm, Mrs. Margot O'Grady, Miss Ruth Quinn, Miss Doris Becker, Miss Margot Mink, Miss Virginia Cheving, Miss Jane and Barbara McKinney, Miss Jane Cahill, Miss Martha Schoenfeld, who earlier yesterday honored Miss Hoskinson at a luncheon at Pierre's; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Neilson, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Boss, Messrs. Frank Holcomb, Barry Woods, Robert Fleming, Jr., Thomas Tighe, John Henry Hoskinson, Hilleary Hoskinson, J. Deane Rucker, Jr., Fred Mechlin, Robert Neipold, Nathan Bartlett and Count Fumisoni Biondi.

Virginia Pilgrimage

The annual benefit pilgrimage for the Washington branch of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will be held tomorrow, regardless of the weather. The first visit in the tour will be to Rockledge, home of Mrs. Fred A. Barnes at Occoquan, Va., which was built in 1758 by John Ballentine, an early iron master who established the works at Occoquan. The house was designed by Buckland, who also designed Gunston Hall, the Hammond-Harwood house and many other historic houses in Annapolis and nearby Virginia.

Following Ballentine's occupancy the place passed into the hands of John Semple, who with Ballentine is credited with interesting George Washington in building a canal around Great Falls. Rockledge will be open from 3 to 4:30 o'clock, after which those making the pilgrimage will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wade H. Ellis at their place, Rippon Lodge, at a garden party from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Joseph Stiles Wall is chairman for the pilgrimage and has a large committee to assist her, including Mrs. Royal D. Mead, Mrs. Jesse Lee Webb, Mrs. Eugene O. Sykes, Mrs. John T. Little, Miss Eleanor Fitts, Mrs. William Clark, Miss Lucella Chase, Mrs. Ryland Bryant, Mrs. Guy Withers, Mrs. Mason Smith, Mrs. Chauncey Williams, Mrs. Charles Allen.

Mrs. Everard Robinson Todd is director of the Washington branch of the association, and the vice-directresses are Mrs. William Cabell Moore, Mrs. William O. Owen and Mrs. Henry St. George Tucker.

The treasurer of the local branch, Mrs. Virgil L. Jackson at 1801 K street, is receiving reservations which must be made by this afternoon.

Mrs. Roosevelt Aids Show Tomorrow

Mrs. Roosevelt is a patroness for the Cedarbrook Horse Show which will be held tomorrow afternoon for the benefit of the Alexandria Hospital. The show will begin at 2 o'clock and will be held at the Lord Fairfax Country Club.

Other patrons and patronesses for the benefit include the South African Minister and Mrs. Ralph William Close, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Johnson, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Daniel B. DeVore, Maj. and Mrs. Henry Leonard, former Ambassador and Mrs. Wilbur J. Carr, Princess Boncompagni, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. C. Smith.

MRS. WOODROW W. BIRD. Visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Olmstead in their home in Colonial Village, Va. Mrs. Bird will remain some time as Mr. Bird is on active duty with the Navy. The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Bird took place in February and they are making their home in San Francisco. Mrs. Bird formerly was Miss Muriel L. Craven, daughter of Mr. Edgar L. Craven and the late Mrs. Craven—Romanine (San Francisco) Photo.

ington University and was chosen Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity in April. Mr. Cole is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha.

Out-of-town guests were the Misses Jane and Amelia Stief of Cleveland, aunts of the bride, and Mr. Robert C. Kelly of Springfield, Ohio, brother-in-law of the bride.

For traveling the bride wore a tailored silk coffee print dress with a pleated skirt and a short-sleeved brown wool jacket. Her hat was of coconut straw and she wore a corsage of white orchids.

On their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Cole will be at home at Buckingham Village, Arlington, Va.

Miss Edna Holst Wed To Mr. James P. Grove, Jr. A wedding of interest in college circles in Takoma Park took place Sunday at 3 o'clock in Cumberland in the Seventh-day Adventist Church, when Miss Edna Winifred Holst, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Albert E. Holst, became the bride of Mr. James Paul Grove, Jr. of Takoma Park, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grove of Williamsport, Pa. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, pastor of the church.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Alice Holst, sister of the bride, played the organ, and her brother, Mr. Leonard Holst, sang.

A bank of palms and ferns with baskets of orange blossoms and peonies formed the setting for the ceremony.

The bride was escorted by Dr. Henry Brown of Takoma Park, friend of the family, and wore a gown of white satin, fashioned on princess lines, with a train and a sweetheart neckline. Her gown buttoned down the back. Her fingertip-length veil, which was held in place with a halo of lace and a chin band, was bound with satin. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and gypsophelia tied with a wide satin ribbon.

Miss Rosa Mae Pease of Richmond, Ind., was her only attendant. She wore a long gown of blue chiffon, made much like that worn by the bride. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. Lloyd Grove, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, and the two brothers of the bride, Mr. Leonard Holst and Mr. Robert Holst, were the ushers.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed.

Among the guests from Washington were Dr. and Mrs. Henry Brown and Mrs. W. W. Mayes, Mrs. David Edward Cason and her son David of Staunton, Va., were also present.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Grove, the latter wearing a redingote of blue with white accessories, left for a tour of Virginia. They will be at home in Takoma Park after June 25 at their apartment, 504 Greenwood avenue.

Mrs. Grove is a student at Washington Missionary College, and Mr. Grove is a junior in the theological department.

Ida Elaine James Wins Poetry Prize Of Women's Clubs

Prizes in the ninth annual poetry contest of the District Federation of Women's Clubs were announced at a meeting last night at which Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, a federation past president, was hostess at her home.

The first prize of $15, presented by Mrs. Wiley, went to Ida Elaine James for "Night from a Sky-scraper Roof" and the $10 prize awarded by Frank R. Jelleff to Inez Barclay Kirby for "Man Invades the Stratosphere."

The third prize, a copy of the book, "Welcome Dawn," written by the federation's poetry division chairman, Mrs. Grace Kless Swiggett, went to Lolet Smith for her poem, "What of Us?" Mrs. Swiggett gave this award.

Books given by Mrs. Inez Sheldon Tyler as the next four awards went to Anna Priestly for "New Walls for Old," Mabel Vincent for "Sagebrush, Stone and Sod," Lula Minerva Schultz for "I Was Hungry and Ye Fed Me Not" and Mattie Richards Tyler for "Arlington Speaks."

Eighth and ninth prizes, which were subscriptions to the poetry magazine, Blue Moon, presented by Mrs. Tyler, went to Peggy Lawshe and Mary D. Castle.

Anna Priestly, Ida Elaine James and Lolet Smith also won honorable mention for other poems submitted.

Mrs. Swiggett presided. Ralph Cheyney and Lucia Trent judged the poems.
